

Fact Sheet

DOES MODERN SOCIETY RESPECT AUTHORITY?

GUESTS:

Les Twentyman - As a full time street outreach worker for more than 25 years, Les Twentyman knows more about the city's streets than most. In recent years, since returning full time to his first passion 20th Man Fund, he has shone a light on the trends in emerging youth issues like gang violence, weapons carriage and its relationship to the growing incidence of truancy in our education system.

Elida Brereton – Elida was a teacher and principal in the government school system for 43 years. Elida was a Leading Teacher at Pembroke Secondary College in the 1980s, an Assistant Principal and Acting Principal at Brentwood Secondary College in the late 80s and early 90s and finished in January 2010 after 15 years as Principal of Camberwell High School. From June 2010 until December 2012, Elida worked part time for the Department of Education's Bastow Institute, mentoring and coaching new and intern principals, and she is currently a consultant to some principals.
